

Working an 8-hour shift in a smoking establishment is like smoking almost a pack of cigarettes. More women die of lung cancer and heart disease than in any other job. Please support smoke-free restaurants and bars. It's about health. It's about time.

This message brought to you by the Montana Department of Public Health and Human Services

